Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012; and this Court having found that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and this Court having found that this Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Motion is granted on a final basis as set forth herein.
2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.
3. The Debtors are authorized to file a single consolidated list of their thirty largest unsecured creditors; provided that if any of these chapter 11 cases converts to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, the applicable Debtor shall file a list of its own top 30 unsecured creditors. The Debtors shall provide information regarding their largest creditors on an entity-by-entity basis to the U.S. Trustee upon request.

4. The Debtors shall furnish to Omni, the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, a consolidated Creditor Matrix.

5. The Debtors are authorized, on a final basis, pursuant to section 107(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to redact the names, addresses, and email addresses of their customers from any filings with the Court or made publicly available in these chapter 11 cases, provided, however, that the authorization to redact the names of customers, whether they are natural persons or entities, and the addresses of customers who are not natural persons, is limited to those documents in which disclosure would indicate the status of such person or entity as a customer. For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Final Order to the contrary, nothing herein shall prohibit or forbid the U.S. Trustee from publicly identifying members of any official committee(s) appointed in this case. Nothing in this Final Order exempts any customer, creditor, or equity security holder from compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 2019. Nothing in this Final Order prohibits any customer, creditor, or equity security holder from voluntarily identifying itself in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, or voluntarily disclosing any of its contact information.

6. The Debtors are authorized, on a final basis, pursuant to section 107(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to redact on the Creditor Matrix, the Schedules and Statements, affidavits of service, and any other documents filed with the Court by the Debtors, (a) the home addresses and email addresses of individuals, including individual creditors and individual equity holders in the United States; provided that the names of individuals identified as minors located in the United States shall be redacted on the Creditor Matrix and (b) the home and email addresses, and other Personal Data, of any natural person whose personally identifiable information has been provided to an organization with an establishment in the United Kingdom or a European Economic Area member state. The Debtors shall provide an unredacted version of the Creditor Matrix, the Schedules and Statements, and any other filings redacted pursuant to this Final Order to (a) the Court, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Committee, and the Claims and Noticing Agent and (b) any party in interest upon a request to the Debtors (email being sufficient) or to the Court that is reasonably related to these chapter 11 cases; any receiving party shall not transfer or otherwise provide such unredacted document to any person or entity not party to the request. In each case, this would be subject to a review of whether such disclosure, on a case-by-case basis, would violate any obligation under any privacy or data protection law or regulation. The Debtors shall inform the U.S. Trustee promptly after denying any request for an unredacted document pursuant to this Final Order.

7. Nothing herein precludes a party in interest's right to file a motion requesting that the Court unseal the information redacted by this Final Order.

8. The Debtors shall file a redacted version of the Creditor Matrix, the Schedules and Statements, or any other document filed with the Court, as well as post it on Omni's website.

9. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall file an unredacted Creditor Matrix under seal with the Court.

10. Nothing in this Final Order shall waive or otherwise limit the service of any document upon or the provision of any notice to any individual whose personally identifiable information is sealed or redacted pursuant to this Final Order. Service of all documents and notices upon individuals whose personally identifiable information is sealed or redacted pursuant to this Final Order shall be confirmed in the corresponding certificate of service.

11. To the extent a party in interest files a document on the docket in these chapter 11 cases that is required to be served on creditors whose information is under seal pursuant to this Final Order, such party in interest should contact counsel for the Debtors who shall work in good faith, with the assistance of the Claims and Noticing Agent, to effectuate the service on such party's behalf.

12. The service requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2002(g) are modified to permit and authorize the Debtors, through their Claims and Noticing Agent, to serve all pleadings and papers, including the Notice of Commencement, via email, except when a party to be served both (a) has a mailing address in the Debtors' books, records, and files or has designated a mailing address under Bankruptcy Rules 2002(g)(1) or 5003(e), and (b) has requested hard copy U.S. first class mail service, in which case, such party shall be served by mail at such mailing address. Nothing in this order prevents the Debtors from additionally serving any party by email in addition to the methods of service set forth in Fed. R. Bank. P. 9036.

13. The Debtors, through their Claims and Noticing Agent, are authorized to serve all pleadings and papers on all parties listed on the Creditor Matrix. This Final Order does not authorize service by email of any complaint or other pleading filed in an adversary proceeding, unless the party to be served consents to email service of the applicable document(s).

14. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

15. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

16. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
